

ShaMaran Announces Bondholder Approval and Launch of Bond Tender

June 10, 2024

Vancouver, British Columbia – ShaMaran Petroleum Corp. (“ShaMaran” or the “Company”) (TSXV: SNM) (Nasdaq First North: SNM) announces that a large majority of the Company’s bondholders in the 12% senior unsecured bond due July 2025 (ISIN NO 0011057622)(the “Bond”) have voted in favor of the previously announced proposal to amend the Bond as referenced in the Company’s news releases on May 21, 2024, and May 27, 2024.

The approved amendments to the Bond include a two-year extension of the maturity date to July 2027 and other financial matters that are now conditionally granted subject to completion of the below buy-back tender offer and final documentation.

The Company also announces a buy-back tender offer to repurchase $47 million of bonds, which, together with the cancellation of the Company’s own bonds of $5.9 million, will reduce the outstanding amount of the Bond by approximately 21%. All eligible bondholders may participate in the tender. The tender period starts at 09:00 Central European Time (“CET”) on June 11, 2024, and ends at 15:00 CET on June 21, 2024.

Pareto Securities has been engaged as Manager for this process with ABG Sundal Collier and Clarksons Securities engaged as Co-Managers.

All currency amounts indicated as “$” in this news release are expressed in United States dollars.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this press release constitute forward-looking information. These statements relate to future events or the Company’s future performance, business prospects and opportunities, which are based on assumptions of management.

The use of any of the words “will”, “expected”, “planned” and similar expressions and statements relating to matters that are not historical facts are intended to identify forward-looking information and are based on the Company’s current belief or assumptions as to the outcome and timing of certain future events. Certain information set forth in this news release contains forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, expectations of cash flow that may be impacted by the local demand for oil continuing until the Iraq-Türkiye pipeline (“ITP”) reopening and its effect on the Company, including production in Sarsang and Atrush, and the impact of the anticipated closing of the TAQA/HKN transaction on the Company’s indirect working interest in the Atrush Block. There is no certainty as to the number of bondholders subscribing to the upcoming buy-back tender offer. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties relating to, among other things, changes in oil prices, results of exploration and development activities, including results, timing and costs of seismic, drilling and development related activity in the Company’s area of operations, uninsured risks, regulatory changes, defects in title, availability of funds required to participate in the development activities, availability of financing on reasonable terms, availability of materials and equipment on satisfactory terms, outcome of commercial negotiations with government and other regulatory authorities, timeliness of government or other regulatory approvals, actual performance of facilities, availability of third-party service providers, equipment and processes relative to specifications and expectations and unanticipated environmental impacts on operations. The risks outlined above should not be construed as exhaustive. Additional information on these and other factors that could affect the Company’s operations and financial results are included in the Company’s annual information form for the year ended December 31, 2023, and other reports on file with the Canadian Securities Regulatory Authorities that can be accessed on the Company’s profile on SEDAR+. Actual future results may differ materially. Various assumptions or factors are typically applied in drawing conclusions or making the forecasts or projections set out in forward-looking information. With respect to the forward-looking statements in this news release, the Company has made assumptions regarding, among other things, local sales demand and prices, the timing and conditions to the reopening of the ITP, the closing of the TAQA/HKN transaction, future oil and gas prices and that the Company will be able to raise sufficient capital to fund its operations, if needed. Those assumptions and factors are based on information currently available to the Company. The forward-looking information contained in this release is made as of the date hereof, and the Company is not obligated to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable securities laws. Because of the risks, uncertainties and assumptions contained herein, investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking information. The foregoing statements expressly qualify any forward-looking information.

Neither TSX Venture Exchange nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the TSX Venture Exchange) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this release.
